HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY.

The Cup That Cheers

Nothing contributes so much to the comfort and enjoyment of a meal as a cup of good Tea. There are so many different kinds offered for sale that a real genuine article is hard to get. The Hudson's Bay Co. has always been famed for selling good

TEA

To meet the demand for India and Ceylon Tea we have devoted our best efforts to procure through direct reliable channels the goods that elsewhere have given the most satisfaction. The firm of Joseph Tetley & Co. is one of the largest importers of these Teas and we have accepted their agency for Manitoba and the N.W.T. Their transactions are very large, they employ the best Tea experts and their name is a guarantee of quality. Firms who only import a few thousand pounds are not in a position to compete either in quality or value. "Once used always used." Use and you will use no other. We sell it in 1lb and 1lb packets at 50 cents a Pound.

TETLEY'S

While we sell good Tea, we also sell good COFFEE. Pure Mocha, Java, Rio, fresh roasted and ground when ordered. Chase & Sanborn's pure Java, Mocha and O. G. Java, Acker man's Cafe des Gourmets. A lover of Coffee can always depend on getting the best at the Hudson's Bay Store.

From Saturday's Daily

The Hounds General has sent to the Town 2000 dollars, framed, collected at Peter's place.

Ex Councillor McHaffie returned yesterday from a business trip to the eastern provinces.

Last night in the competition for the Hunter's Cup trophy, Mabel defeated Wangh, 14 to 9, and in the green entries, 13 point, one Petticoat was defeated Spafford.

Yesterday Mr. P. Burns shipped 8 cars of beef, cattle to Vancouver, also one car of dressed meat for Melatos, the leading meat dealer of that city.

The Connolly Bros., who have signed as Government contractors in the construction of a $2,000,000 dredging contract in Phillipsburg. The work will last five years.

The Montreal Star Feb. 3 says: "John Ross McNeilly, Mr. J. H. Ross, and the Rev. J. A. Ross, left yesterday for New York, from whence they will sail on Saturday. They expect to remain abroad for several months."

The Toronto Herald Feb. 3 says: "Mr. J. A. Lynch-Staunton, a prominent rancher from Fort Macleod, N. W. T., registered at the Hall yesterday. He is on his way to England."

The case of Brebber v. Town of Calgary was heard before Judge Beauman today. The plaintiff claims $600 from the corporation on account of injuries received by shooting on a portion of the sidewalk which had slightly buckled up at one end near S. J. Clarke's saloon, at the time when the saloon was being moved away from the corner of Stephen Ave. and Drink Water Street last spring. Several witnesses examined and the case was still going on at the time of going to press.

The secretary of the Calgary A. D. C. informs us that it is impossible to produce "Our Boys" in the Open House on the 14th inst., owing to the unfinished state of the building. The Drama Club is now ready to go on and will do so as soon as the theatre is ready. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Calgary General Hospital Fund. The new dress circle and scenery, which closed in Chicago, is unpacked and now being set up. It is undoubtedly the best comedy this side of Winnipeg.

From Friday's Daily.

Major St. John, of Ottawa, who has secured the services of the Calgarian public building and post office, is the gentleman who has the contract for the erection of the Indian Industrial School at Red Deer.

The evidence in the suit of Brebber against the Town of Calgary, was concluded yesterday, the counsel in the case addressing the court this morning. Judgment was reserved. James Muir, Q.C., appeared for Brebber, A. L. Sison for town.

Mr. A. O. Macdonald is today in receipt of notice from Ottawa in the form of a letter from the Dept. of Militia to D. W. Davis, M. P., informing him that Mr. Macdonald has been selected for service as soon as orders come through and which was preferred by Mr. Davis to the Dept last session, had been granted and that a warrant will forthwith issue from the Dept of Interior.

Great game in the 13 point competition was held Saturday evening last between T. Tarnay and J. R. Martin. The former by 1 point, the same standing 11 to 11. It was the first 13 point game ever played on the ice in Calgary. Tomorrow morning the game will be completed and will be played between T. Tarnay and W. H. Kinnison and is sure to be a good one.

Tonight Wangh and Dick play the final game in class "A", merchant temple, and it promises to be most exciting. The winner will play for the trophy in the hands of class "A", for the trophy.

Judge Boulet's decisions in the Baillif liquor appeal cases, makes it clear that liquor can no longer be sold in the National Park under license. Until further negotiations are made, those who have liquor in their possession would have to obtain a special permit from the Lieutenant-Governor. This permit would have to be sent to Ottawa to be countersigned by the Minister of the Interior, the holder of the permit paying $50 for the same. This plan however, proved unfavorable, as before the permit came back from Ottawa it had expired. It may have been the intention to have appointed some one at Banff to countersign the permits on behalf of the Minister of the Interior, but it was never done. In quashing the convictions of the J. P. at Baillif Mr. Justice Boulet showed that he fairly understood the injustice entailed on the result.

The Calgarian Sentinel, of Saturday, referring to the disastrous storm, says: "Until the weather moderates, the extent of the losses to the ranches of the winter will not be known, but that cattle are dying by hundreds, if not thousands, every day cannot be doubted."

The C. P. R. and the A. R. & G. Co.

There have been repeated demands by the ranchers within the last three weeks in the eastern provinces for the opening of the Territories to the C. P. R. and the Alberta Railway & Coal Co. having come to an agreement in regard to the sale of the railway to the C. P. R. We presume that where there is no smoke there is probably some fire. One of the latest of these announcements makes very particular have of localities and distances.

"It reads as follows:—

"We have received information from reliable sources that the C. P. R. has acquired an important interest in the Fort Hills oil territory of the Northwest. The railway required is the 140 mile section of the Alberta road between Lethbridge and the Crow's Nest Pass, through which the C. P. R. propose to construct a second railway to the Pacific coast. The newly acquired road will be brought up to the standard gauge of the Galt road.

ESTATE CASE.

LONDON, ENGLAND.

The Hon. Mr. Justice Burbridge of the Exchequer Court of Canada, has handed down judgment in the above case. It will be remembered that the defendant would be Mr. James Lucas, who acted as a moving officer at the last Dominion election, to recover a large sum alleged to be due himself and various enumerators and deputies for services in connection with the last election. The suit was filed last September at Calgary.

Mr. Justice Burbridge has allowed Mr. Lucas the sum of $300 in addition to that already paid him, but has awarded him nothing for the various enumerators and deputies on the ground that they were not parties to the action and Mr. Lucas could not recover for their services and expenses. His Lordship intimated that the defendant was undoubtedly entitled to something more than that allowed by the Auditor-General, he would be at an early date given to the court to be competent for the jury to find her damages in the amount of the sum in question. Counsel cited authorities to the effect that publication is deemed to have been made when the manuscript left the hands of the person charged.

Mr. Costigan stated that he had no further evidence to offer.

Mr. Sifton asked that the charge be withdrawn as it was not sufficient evidence to go to the jury to sustain it. There was no evidence that defendant was aware that the statement was false, as required by the section under which the charge was brought; neither had any evidence been adduced to show that the defendant had a reasonable excuse for his conduct.

Mr. Costigan in reply said that even if defendant were not aware of the truth or falsity of the statement complained of, it would be competent for the jury to find her damages in the amount of the sum in question. Counsel cited authorities to the effect that publication is deemed to have been made when the manuscript left the hands of the person charged.

His Lordship expressed the opinion that it was not sufficient evidence of publication by defendant, and at Mr. Costigan's request consented to state a case for the full court, should the defendant be found guilty.

Dugald Lamont was called for his defense in the case by Mr. Sifton who said he was a member of the firm of Lamont Brothers, W. H. Wilson had been in the employment of the firm from October to December in last year. He was then discharged by Robert Laumont.

The reason given for discharging him was his inability to get along to work. There were other reasons. Witness did not know personally of other reasons. He had never caught Wilson doing anything wrong. Wilson had once admitted witness to let him have half a ton of coal, but had not made any record of it in his return to the firm.

In cross-examination witness said he did not know whether Wilson had taken the coal or not, and in a conversation with Mr. Costigan some time ago, he was told that Wilson had not been discharged for that reason.

A girl named Mary Myers was also called for the defense, but was unable to throw any light on the case.

Mr. Sifton addressed the jury for the defense, and Mr. Costigan re-plied.

His Lordship charged the jury on the law relating to the charge, and analyzed the evidence given. The jury retired and after half an hour's deliberation found the defendant with a verdict of not guilty, but held his Lordship to a retrial for his conduct.

Mr. Justice McInleau addressing defendant said that in accordance with the law he must give his opinion for the man in the case he had had acted.

It is the custom in law to give the opinion to the jury, but in this case the defendant requested Mrs. Jones, as she had staffed her hands, to take the bench for him.

"Now, you think me remiss, Mrs. Jones? What's the matter with the coat?" said Jones deprecatingly, as he took his tall hat off and laid it on the chair beside the Mr. McInleau's seat and folded the last and Mrs. Jones' coat over it. And Mrs. Jones laughed till she cried.

"I am sorry to say, Mrs. Jones, that I am not in a fit condition to go to the present proceedings and not present in the course she had just passed."

The defendant was then discharged and the court adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

A Charge of Criminal Libel Dismissed after Saturday.

The court was occupied all day on Saturday in the hearing of Gina vs Sergeant, the defendant, Bosco C. Sergeant, being charged with having written and published a defamatory libel on Saturday, Feb. 11th. The libel complained of was alleged to have been contained in a letter written by the defendant to Wilson's mother at Hamilton in which the defendant stated that Wilson had been dismissed from his employment in Ontario. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and also filed a plea of justification to the public interest.

J. R. Costigan Q. C. prosecuted and A. L. Sifton defended the accused.

The following jury was sworn to try the case: E. H. O'Sullivan; W. H. Lee; H. D. Johnson; T. D. Lawder; R. D. Blair and Wm. Pitt.

Mr. Costigan having stated that he had been retained by the jury, W. H. Wilson, the defendant, had appeared and defended his case. He had been a laborer residing in Calgary. He had been in the employment of Frank Hamilton and Lamont Brothers and was now working for Douglas and Farlow. He had been a member of the Communist party and had been a delegate to the 1923 convention. He had been a laborer residing in Hamilton, (one of the letters contained the alleged libel). The "W" Wilson mentioned in these letters referred to witness. The letters were written in ink and were from Wilson's mother, and were open. The witness was not cross examined.

Mr. Costigan stated that he had no further evidence to offer.

Mr. Sifton asked that the charge be withdrawn as it was not sufficient evidence to go to the jury to sustain it. There was no evidence that defendant was aware that the statement was false, as required by the section under which the charge was brought; neither had any evidence been adduced to show that the defendant had a reasonable excuse for his conduct.

Mr. Costigan in reply said that even if defendant were not aware of the truth or falsity of the statement complained of, it would be competent for the jury to find her damages in the amount of the sum in question. Counsel cited authorities to the effect that publication is deemed to have been made when the manuscript left the hands of the person charged.

His Lordship expressed the opinion that it was not sufficient evidence of publication by defendant, and at Mr. Costigan's request consented to state a case for the full court, should the defendant be found guilty.

The judgment carries costs and witness fees of the army of witnesses who were called.

Longfield, McMurtry & McFetridge, the enumerators and deputies, will have the conduct of the case for Mr. Lucas and Mr. J. R. Costigan conducted the defense on behalf of the Crown.
